

Genesis Sermon Series – part 9
“A Rainbow Covenant”
Genesis 9

Genesis 9 - God’s Covenant with Noah

1. After the Flood God Commanded Man to _____

We are all related to _____ and _____

WE ARE ALL FAMILY!

2. After the Flood – Relationships Changed Between _____

Once upon a time the lion could lay down with the lamb – but not after the flood.

As it was in the beginning – so it will be in the end after Jesus comes again

Isaiah 11:6-7

3. After the Flood – God initiates new _____ to avoid _____

When we respect _____, we respect its _____

Don’t _____ into _____

The Lord will hold man and animal accountable for every drop of blood spilt.

Man’s job is to multiply the human race - not subtract from it.

Verses 8-11

What is a covenant?

It is a _____, or a binding _____, a lasting _____

Not a contract – Why?

Because contracts are made to be . . . _____!

4. After the Flood – God gave man a _____ and a _____

Verses 12-17

In the beginning the rainbow had one _____ and one _____

Rainbows are not insignificant
They are visual signs that God has given us a second chance

The Rainbow is A HARBINGER OF HOPE and teaches us 3 Things

1) Live in Hope Because God Is _____

2) Hope Sustains Us When The World _____

You Cannot see a Rainbow Unless You Have _____

3) Hope is Secure Because Of GOD’S _____

The promise of God’s love and care continues despite man’s sin.

No matter what man does, says or thinks – God is still God.

5. After the Flood – Sin Still _____

Verses 18-22

WHAT SINS –
Noah got _____ his father
Ham _____ his father

The consequences of sin may be passed on to family – but sin doesn’t have to be.

Right and Wrong will always be a _____.

Just as Noah gave a curse and a blessing because of the sin of a son, so our heavenly Father does the same.

What blessing have you received? What curse?
Which one are you passing on to be your children’s legacy?

2 Chronicles 7:14

“if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.”
